payanar I use mailing labels also for right now. Want to bring in iPad to do Evernote but for now old school is working. #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

CourtneyM_Woods @CourtneyM_Woods I take 10 min at end of the day to review/add on from a computer. Use my phone to just jot quick notes. #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 kelleemoye I also do fluency checks quarterly to check up on my students fluency since they are struggling readers. #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

KathrynTrask @teachandgolf No same here, sometimes I make notes in good ol pencil and paper and put in later! #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 scanloe In the fall I use strategies to get students to talk about their book, listening and taking notes is my formative assessment #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 teachandgolf @kelleemoye I'd like to know more about your scale assessments and self assessments.. #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

MelanieMeehan1 Also, if you're a project school, new TC checklists are great for assessing students and documenting growth. #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 spillarke @MelanieMeehan1 @kelleemoye the stickers remind me of Brenda Piwers nook Taking Note on anecdotal record keeping-great read. #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

CourtneyM Woods @spillarke Sometimes Evernote will catch a signal and I can work on my comp, if not I take 10min at end of day from home #rwworkshop -9:19 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 kelleemoye @spillarke Need to get much better. I think getting the iPad will help as I am writing and then typing it in. #rwworkshop -9:18 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 teachandgolf @KathrynTrask but texting on my phone isn't as fast as normal typing for me #rwworkshop -9:18 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 kelleemoye In reading workshop, I use student self assessments, scale reflections, and conferences the most for assessment. #rwworkshop -9:18 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

CourtneyM Woods @teachandgolf I have a notebook for each Ss-use phone to write what we talked about/instruction/next steps.

#rwworkshop -9:18 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

MargieVanLiesho Courtney, Interesting. I have evernote but don't use it for conference data. We use confer. Do you like evernote over confer?

#rwworkshop -9:18 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

spillarke @teachandgolf I have a problem with wireless signal consistently too in my portable classroom. #rwworkshop -9:18 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

UWKatie #rwworkshop key to assessment is researching the reader/writer and thinking about what is next- a trajectory of skill work

-9:17 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

wclodfelter @teachandgolf @kelleemoye I planned to use Evernote this year but the district blocked it. Paper and pencil for me. :(#rwworkshop spillarke @kelleemoye how do you like using Evernote? i need to get better on the fly? Speed up my recording and delay my reflecting.

-9:17 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

#rwworkshop -9:17 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

KathrynTrask @CourtneyM_Woods That is the beauty of Evernote, you can use it if wifi not working and sync later. #rwworkshop -9:17 PM Oct 3rd, teachandgolf @CourtneyM_Woods What kind of things do you put in there? I'd have to walk back to my cmpr after every conference.

#rwworkshop -9:17 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

teachandgolf @kelleemoye Same here--status every day, but takes a while to write out what was actually said. #rwworkshop -9:16 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

CourtneyM_Woods @teachandgolf My room is a dead spot too...I use my phone to take notes in Evernote, then sync when I get home on wifi.

#rwworkshop -9:16 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

spillarke @chris_reuter I think that's fantastic that kids are choosing reading over other options. How do you balance w/ other demands? #rwworkshop -9:16 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

MelanieMeehan1 @kelleemoye @spillarke last year, we used mailing stickers and then could file them when we had time #rwworkshop -9:16 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 kelleemoye What types of formative assessments are working for you now? #rwworkshop -9:15 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

KrisBisBooks @spillarke @teachandgolf I have been playing w google forms and Evernote. #Rwworkshop -9:15 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 kelleemoye I am so glad that workshop is working well in your classrooms. Let's move to the topic of the evening: assessment. #rwworkshop -9:15 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 teachandgolf @spillarke I definitely have. Tried one out for practice this summer, but my room is a dead spot for my phone. Not consistent. #rwworkshop -9:15 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

CourtneyM_Woods @teachandgolf Evernote is great for documenting and getting formative data in conferences. I couldn't live w/o it #rwworkshop -9:15 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 kelleemoye @spillarke but haven't gotten an iPad yet to make it easier. #rwworkshop -9:14 PM Oct 3rd, 2012

KrisBisBooks @kelleemoye @teachandgolf My goal this year is to get better at documenting and communicating assessment and instruction w tchrs #Rwworkshop -9:14 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 kelleemoye @spillarke I am very good at keeping their statuses, but bad about documenting what we actually talked about. Using evernote now #rwworkshop -9:14 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 chris_reuter @spillarke @utalaniz as an admin in a MS embracing #rwworkshop kids are choosing to read over other work. Literacy is our district focus. -9:13 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 spillarke @teachandgolf: Have you considered apps or spread sheet on smart phone to document or keep status of the class? #rwworkshop -9:13 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 payanar @kelleemoye @teachandgolf This is something I am working on improving this year. Good ideas in CAFE book #rwworkshop -9:13 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 teachandgolf @kelleemoye Well and I always struggle with how to know what to "teach" them in the conference. I'd rather just talk!!! #rwworkshop -9:12 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 payanar @scanloe I extended the invite for our book challenge to parents too. #rwworkshop -9:12 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 spillarke @utalaniz Mine too. Reading becomes our default. When students (or I) finish with time to spare, we read. #rwworkshop -9:12 PM Oct 3rd, 2012 kelleemoye @teachandgolf Me too. I have gotten so great about conferencing, but not about documenting. I love talking to the kids! #rwworkshop -9:11 PM Oct 3rd, 2012
